Beauty is Health.

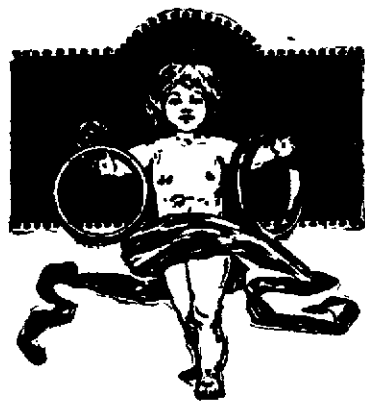

Valent Labs, Ark. June 8, 1900.
I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody.
After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menses, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.
Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Women's health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form.
This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering.
Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of these terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb! Beauty flows quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face.
Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1901.

THE CAPTURE OF AGUINALDO HAS NO MEANING.

Is there anything connected with the capture of Aguinaldo that contains a lesson for the American people? It may be there are those who believe that his arrest will furnish a theme that will cover the American name with glory while the breasts of future generations swell with emotion when the name of General Funston is mentioned in connection with the exploit which resulted in the capture of the Filipino leader.

It is not the intention to take from the brow of General Funston a laurel connected with the daring, or with the courage of a brave soldier when in the service of his country. It is the surroundings and their effect which made the work of General Funston possible with which the present has to do, and with which the future will have to dispose of in the form of a legacy to succeeding generations coming as it came from conditions imposed upon a half civilized people removed from us by distance and race.

Distance is not so much a matter of difference as is the removal made by nature through the distinctness there is connected with race, although the removal is not so great as to form a barrier that closes the future in a hybrid, yet there is a distinctness that no physiologist has explained on any reasonable hypothesis independent of the theory that all nations are of the same blood.

It is not the intention of the writer to enter upon a discussion of the difference there is in races, or of the causes that make up the difference existing which would be foreign to the purpose outlined by the interrogatory made at the opening of this article. The people have learned that the conditions which have made the capture of Aguinaldo possible, have been given as an excuse for a departure from the time honored principles of the republic, while his capture does not have anything to do with the departure made, or with the excuse given for making it. Aguinaldo may be cunning, which more than probably is true, as the principle of cunning is more developed in the inferior races than it is in the bearded race, but its presence is not evidence of the possession of intellect, but is proof positive upon metaphysical and psychological principles of its absence when in high order.

In the absence of a superior intellect there cannot be present any marked ability for military organization or for the direction of effective military combination, and as a result no great effort of a military character could come from a leader who is deficient in mental qualities required for a successful leader. This man and his followers have been made an excuse for overriding the land-marks of the republic, which does not at this time and will not in the future furnish any excuse for imperialism in the United States, but it will in the future, as it does now like Aguinaldo's cunning, furnish proof of the absence of intellect.

The capture of the Filipino leader and the conditions created to make his capture possible contain lessons which the people will do well to heed now and in the hereafter. There is not anything connected with the Filipino war that can be properly used to justify imperialism in the United States. The war was made an excuse, in connection with other matters, for the commercial convenience of those who expected to profit by an extension of United States territory through the appropriation of the natural wealth of the countries acquired; also through an appropriation of the future acquired wealth of the people who reside in and are native to the soil of these countries.

To secure the means whereby an appropriation of the natural and acquired wealth could be made, imperialism was brought forward and given a position in politics in the United States, as a means most likely to secure the purpose of those engaged in securing an end through the appropriation mentioned.

While the work has been going forward there has been no end to the glatteries of President McKinley who have provided the necessary means to make a success of the scheme by making imperialism a part of the American system, that they might profit therefrom at the expense of home, liberty and country.

When Napoleon was preparing the way to become Emperor of the French, one among the first steps taken was to suppress free speech in the Tribune of France and silence the press, which was accomplished by the Tribune passing the required laws; then came the adulations of the weak, followed by silence and servitude for fifteen years, or till Napoleon ceased to rule the people of France.

Perhaps Mark Hanna's threat to silence the Senate has a meaning, in the light of proceedings had in France a hundred years ago, but there is a hope for protection against any serious movement in the near future, such as Napoleon accomplished, which hope for protection rests in the belief that there is not a Napoleon among the shop-keepers and commercial sharps who infect the avenues leading to liberty and to a glorious future for the country.

ABOUT MINE AND MINER

Notes Gathered From Exchanges

About This Industry.

Tonopah has a population of 225. T. F. Egan has been elected mining recorder of the district.

Tom Welch, who was injured recently at the Belcher mine, is getting along nicely and will recover the use of both legs.

Harry J. Crowe has bonded the Daniel Boone, Daniel Boone No. 2 and Yankee Blade mines, situated in Rebel Creek district, from A. G. and K. R. McKenzies.

The standard miners' inch of water shall be equivalent to 1 1-2 cubic feet of water per minute, measured through any aperture or orifice.

Run Them in or Run Them out.

The attention of the officers is directed to the fact that there have been notices on the streets for the past couple of days at least twenty-six young men, who appear to have no visible means of support. This makes them amenable to the law regarding vagrancy.

This score or more of gentlemen of leisure dress pretty well, do some in trigonometry and can translate dog Latin like "in mundum frigorem euntes" into classical United States, but nevertheless they appear to lack the "visible means of support."

Valuations Fixed.

The State Board of Assessors fixed the valuation of fat cows at $25. Stock Cattle, $17 in all counties except Lincoln, Nye and White Pine, where it shall be $16. Milch Cows, $25. Sheep, $2.50 and rams or bucks, $5.

Put on a Good Front.

BRIEF WIRED WORDS

Aguinaldo is astonished at American fairness and magnanimity. He predicts peace within the next few months.

The attempts of the government to suppress the rebels in Colombia are resulting disastrously. The latter are well fortified.

The Prussian flagship, Kaiser Frederick III, was grounded near Arcona yesterday.

The Governor of New Jersey says he will enlist the services of the militia if necessary in order to stop gambling.

In the March of Progress.

If the Lord is willing, this is the last hand-set issue of the JOURNAL. Tomorrow you will read a linotype paper as you sip your morning coffee.

In the course of a week or two the JOURNAL will be enlarged as well as improved generally. The change is not being made as a matter of economy. As many people as heretofore will be employed and the expense account will be increased, rather than reduced. Nuff said at present.

scenes That Are Likened to Visions of a Glorified City.

The fascinations of a glacier are as witching as they are dangerous. Apocalyptic vision of a crystal city glorified by light "that never was on land or sea" was not more beautiful than these vast ice rivers, whose onward course is chronicled, not by years and centuries, but by geological ages, says a British Columbia correspondent of the New York Post. With white domes and snow cornices wreathed fantastic as arabesques and with the glassy walls of emerald grotto reflecting a million sparkling jewels, one might be in some cavernous dream world or among the tottering grandeur of an ancient city. The ice pillars and silvered pianacles, which scientists call seracs, stand like the sculptured marble of temples crumbling to ruin. Glittering pendants hang from the rim of bluish chasm. Tints too brilliant for artists' brush gleam from the turquoise of crystal walls. Rivers that flow through valleys of ice and lakes, hemmed in by hills of ice, shine with an azure depth that is very infinity's self.

In the morning, when all thaw has been stopped by the night's cold, there is deathly silence over the glacial fields, even the mountain cataracts fall noiselessly from the precipice to ledge in tenuous, wind-blown threads. But with the rising of the sun the whole glacial world bursts to life in noisy tumult. Surface rivulets brawl over the ice with a glee that is vocal and almost human. The gurgle of rivers flowing through subterranean tunnels becomes a roar, as of a rushing, angry sea. Ice grip no longer holds back rock scree loosened by the night's frost, and there is the reverberating thunder of the falling avalanche.

BOARD OF ASSESSORS

The Valuations of the Railroads Agreed Upon—Other Matters Discussed.

The Board of Assessors met at 9 o'clock a. m.—all present.
A discussion occurred relative to the absence of the Attorney-General when his presence and advice was desired, and it was shown that he was engaged in an important trial in Douglas county and it was impossible for him to be present, so the matter was dropped.

Controller Davis then addressed the Board relative to the valuation of railroad property, and urged a fair consideration of the situation as well as a reasonable advance. He presented statistics and figures compiled from his late report, also from the reports filed by the railroad companies.

A general discussion followed, and motions were made placing the valuation on the Central Pacific Railroad at from $15,000 to $30,000 per mile, but a compromise was finally effected and the valuation was placed at $20,000 per mile, the sidings fixed at $7,000 per mile.

The matter of assessing the Pullman cars was then taken up, but after considerable discussion nothing definite was arrived at, save authorizing the assessors to assess the cars on route and to use proper discretion. Rolling stock and other property was left to the assessors.

The Virginia & Truckee railroad was then taken up for consideration. E.
S. Yerington and F. Murphy appeared for the company, and after answering a multitude of questions the board fixed the valuation at $10,000 per mile and the sidings at $1,000 per mile.

The N.-O.-C. main line at $3,000 per mile and sidings at $1,000 per mile.
Carson & Colorado, $2,500 per mile;
sidings, $1,250.

Eureka & Palisade, $1,900 per mile;
sidings, $1,000.

Nevada Central, same as Eureka & Palisade.

Two or three short lines in eastern counties, partially abandoned and wholly idle, were left to the assessors of counties where such roads are located.

Thoroughbred cattle were placed at $50 per head throughout the State.

Lands were taken up, and after considerable discussion were left to the discretion of assessors.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the valuation was fixed on the C. P. main line was promptly voted down.

Sheep were fixed at $250 per head throughout the State and bucks at $5.
The board then adjourned sine die.

Insurance Matter.

The legality of the valued policy law was argued before the Supreme court yesterday, Chasney of Reno and Gorgan of San Francisco appearing against the bill and Coffin of Carson in favor of it. The question of constitutionality was submitted at 4 o'clock and the court adjourned till Monday when it is probable a decision

RICH ORE
STRUCK

Charles Bell Encounters the Reno Star Bonanza Lead.

A sensational strike was made about noon yesterday in Wedekind district, four miles north-east of town. Charles Bell has encountered the famous Reno Star lead.

For the past six months he has been working ground near the Wedekind incline. The property is part of the Reno Star survey but Bell claims it under an agricultural patent. This conflict in title has already been the subject of a lawsuit and the matter is not yet settled. Mr. Wedekind coming out first best in the first contest.

Bell and his associates sunk five shafts in their efforts to pick up the rich lead, but had no success. Yesterday at a depth of 115 feet a bucket of dirt came up that looked a little different from what preceded it. The stuff is said to be "lousy" with horn silver. Some samples that were brought to town contained chunks of pure metal.

One of Bell's partners corroborated the story of the strike and the superintendent of the Wedekind mine also admits it. This find will doubtless take a string of people out to the diggings today.

Report of the Grand Jury.

The grand jury completed its session yesterday afternoon and reported.
Recommendations were made that the jail be enlarged and arrangements made to give greater privacy to women prisoners; that a light be placed in the lower corridor of the court house and kept burning all night, and that the commissioners comply with the law respecting sign boards at forks of public roads.

The following true bills of indictment were found: M. Robinson, grand larceny; Gus Jones, grand larceny; Will Hammermith, burglary; Harry Davis, burglary; Elmo Soso, murder; Henry Hoffman and August Villanini, selling liquor to Indians.

No indictment was brought against Grace Treagles.

The jury was discharged by the court. It may be summoned later to examine the county offices and records.

Causes Unknown.

An inquest was held yesterday afternoon over the remains of George Edwards, who dropped dead at the Kelley ranch the evening previous.
The jury brought in the stereotyped verdict of "death from causes unknown."

Almost a Wreck.

It was reported last night that two trains narrowly escaped a head-on collision near Hefed station yesterday.
Carelessness of an operator is said to have been the cause of the ill-timed meet.

VARSTY
DOINGS

Suspended Students Are Still out but Hays Prospects of Reinstatement.

Another night in the cold, cold world. The twenty-seven boys who "got the run and can't go back" took lodgings again down town. They made no demonstrations yesterday, but quietly talked over the situation among themselves and with their friends.

Nothing came of the proposed sympathetic strike by the remaining students of the University.

A committee from the naughty three and four called on President Stubbs yesterday afternoon, according to appointment. The doctor outlined the method to be used in order to gain reinstatement. To-day the boys will decide what they will do about it.

The students feel considerably relieved at the shot the evening paper has been firing at them in academic language.
